State v. Jackson Feb 01 2023 This criminal action was originally brought by the State of Nita against Arthur Jackson and Sonia Peterson. It is claimed that they arranged with George Avery to destroy the Flinders Aluminum Fabrication Corporation plant by burning the plant. Avery died in the fire. The two defendants were charged with commercial arson. The case went to trial and resulted in a mistrial due to a hung jury. Sonia Peterson pled guilty to conspiracy to commit a felony and agreed to testify against Arthur Jackson. There are four witnesses on both the State and the defense. A companion civil case file, Flinders v. Misra, involves Jackson suing to recover from the company that insured the plant.

Forensic Science Dec 27 2019 Covering a range of fundamental topics essential to modern forensic investigation, the fifth edition of the landmark text Forensic Science: An Introduction to Scientific and Investigative Techniques presents real-life contributions and case studies from the personal files of experts in the field. This fully updated 5th edition, Bell combines these testimonies into an accurate and engrossing account of cutting edge of forensic science across many different disciplines. Designed for a single-term course at the undergraduate level, the book begins by discussing the intersection of law and forensic science, how things become evidence, and how courts decide if an item or testimony is admissible. The book then invites students to follow evidence all the way from the crime scene into laboratory analysis and even onto the autopsy table. Forensic Science offers the fullest and most up-to-date of subject matter of any forensic text available, including forensic anthropology, death investigation (including entomology), bloodstain pattern analysis, fire investigation, tool marks, and forensic analysis of questioned documents. Going beyond textbook application, this text incorporates the wisdom of forensic practitioners who have investigated the real cases they have investigated. Textboxes in each chapter provide case studies, current events, and advice for career advancement. A brand-new feature, Myths in Forensic Science, highlights the differences between true forensic science and popular media fictions. Each chapter begins with an overview and ends with a summary, and key terms, review questions, and up-to-date references. Appropriate for any sensibility, more than 350 full-color photos from real cases give students a true-to-life learning experience. *Access to identical eBook version included

Sexual Harassment in the Workplace: Law & Practice, 5th Edition 2021
Sexual Harassment in the Workplace: Law and Practice

Running Linux Jul 02 2020 You may be contemplating your first Linux installation. Or you may have been using Linux for years and need to know more about a network printer or setting up an FTP server. Running Linux, now in its fifth edition, is the book you'll want on hand in either case. Widely recognized in the Linux community as the ultimate getting-started and problem-solving book, it answers the questions and tackles the configuration issues that frequently puzzle users, but are seldom addressed in other books. This fifth edition of Running Linux is greatly expanded, reflecting the maturity of the operating system and the wealth of software available for it. Hot consumer topics such as audio and video playback applications, groupware functionality, and spam filtering are covered along with the basics in configuration and management that always have made the book popular. Running Linux covers basic communications such as mail, web surfing, and instant messaging, but also delves into the subtleties of network configuration--including dial-up, ADSL, and cable modems--in case you need to set up your network manually. The book can make you proficient on office suite and personal productivity applications--and also tells you what programming tools are available if you're interested in contributing to these applications. Other new topics in the fifth edition include encrypted email and filesystems, advanced shell scripting techniques, and remote login applications. Classic discussions on booting, process management, kernel recompilation, and X configuration have also been updated. The authors of Running Linux have anticipated problem areas, selected standard popular solutions, and provided clear instructions to ensure that you'll have a satisfying experience using Linux. The discussion is direct and complete enough to guide novice users, while still providing the additional information experienced users will need to progress in their mastery of Linux. Whether you're using Linux on a home workstation or maintaining a network server, Running Linux will provide expert advice just when you need it.

Flinders Aluminum Fabrication Corporation v. Mismo Fire Insurance Company
Dec 19 2021 Flinders Aluminum Fabrication Corporation burned to the ground on the night of November 16. George Avery, an employee of the plant, died in the fire. Plaintiff Jackson, the sole stockholder of the company, has filed a civil action lawsuit to recover damages owed from the policy issued by defendant Mismo Fire Insurance Company. The defendant has refused to pay, claiming that the fire was the work of an arsonist, thus indicating deliberate fraud. Mismo asserts that Jackson conspired with others to burn the plant in order to collect what was promised in the insurance policy. This breach-of-contract case file has four witnesses for both the plaintiff and the defendant. Videos of the fire, deposition statements, and a PowerPoint presentation are included as free downloads. A companion criminal case file, State v. Jackson, involves the charge of arson against Arthur Jackson. Both case files are NITA classics that have been updated in 2021. Read more about the case files in this interview with two of their authors.
